

Making Waves:

Oliver Lodge and the Cultures of Science, 1875-1940

Workshop 1: Civic Science: Oliver Lodge, Physics, and the Modern University

University of Birmingham, Saturday 9 November 2013
Small and Large Lecture Theatres, Poynting Physics Building

Featuring:

- Talks on Oliver Lodge, civic science and 1920s physics
- A tour of Lodge materials in the Cadbury Research Library
- Victorian Science Spectacular and Demonstration

To register for this free event please visit
<http://www.oliverlodge.org/>

<http://www.oliverlodge.org/>

@oliverjlodge

oliverlodgenetwork@gmail.com

Programme

*All events will take place in the Physics Lecture Theatres in Poynting Physics
(R13 on the Campus Map)*

10.00 Registration and coffee

10.30 Welcome and opening remarks

10.45 Keynote One

Iwan Morus (Aberystwyth University), “‘That Taste for Learning and Science’”: Science and Civic Identity in Victorian Wales’

12.00 Lunch

1.00 Tour of Lodge materials in the Cadbury Research Library

2.00 Panel session

Imogen Clarke: ‘Looking beyond the ‘modernists’: Sir Oliver Lodge and the public face of 1920s physics’

Peter Rowlands (University of Liverpool): ‘Oliver Lodge’s Subliminal Influence’

3.00 Coffee break

3.30 Keynote Two

Graeme Gooday (University of Leeds), ‘Civic science and the spatial politics of ‘pure’ vs. ‘applied’ knowledge at Birmingham’

4.45 Roundtable Discussion

Featuring Matthew Stanley (New York University); Iwan Morus; Imogen Clarke; Peter Rowlands; Graeme Gooday.

5.45 Wine reception

6.30 Victorian Science Spectacular!

This free, hour-long demonstration is open to both workshop delegates and members of the public.